Sewer Bond Issue to Be Discussed Daily In Columns of The Press

STARTING with today's issue and continuing up to January 7th there will appear daily in the Press an article prepared by the Glendale Chamber of Commerce, giving information regarding the proposed sewer, which, if built, will connect with the Los Angeles outfall to the sea.

This paper at this time wants to go on record in favor of the sewer, regardless of the cost. Of course, we do not wish to convey the meaning by this statement that we are advocating extravagance in particular, but we do recognize Glendale's need and in consequence would make most any reasonable sacrifice to supply this need.

* * *

THE election to vote on the bonds necessary for the building of this sewer has been set for Tuesday, January 8th. Between now and that time every Glendale citizen should make a study of the merits of the proposition. If this is done in an impartial manner the negative votes will be few. We have hesitated over telling of some of the happenings on account of the lack of sewers, as we felt it would prove bad advertising for our city, but now that the voters are being given an opportunity of getting a sewer through an affirmative vote on the bond issue we think the time for a frank discussion has arrived.

* * *

IN ORDER to carry out this thought we will publish each day interviews given us by one or more citizens, chosen at random without any thought as to what their opinions may be. Some of the citizens interviewed may prove to be not in favor of a sewer, but their reasons will be presented and may be answered through the presentation of the opposite viewpoint.

* * *

THE election for directors and officers of the Burbank Chamber of Commerce came off as scheduled. The meeting proved to be somewhat of a love-feast with everyone in harmony with the proceedings.

* * *

THE men elected are well qualified to fill the positions as directors, which speaks well for the future not only of the Chamber itself but for the city of Burbank as well. The only thing lacking at the meeting was the attendance—only about 25 members being present. These are busy times, however, and most every individual has many irons in the fire which demand much of his time outside of business hours.

* * *

THE next proposition which the Chamber is to face is the appointing of a secretary. Mrs. Marye T. Swift has been holding this position since the place was made vacant by the resignation of Mr. Colburn. Her work has been efficient but her duties legion for she has had to handle both the work of a secretary and clerk as well.

* * *

THERE is much more work that is necessary to do in a Chamber than the average citizen appreciates, and a secretary for a city of 10,000 souls is far more than a one-man job.

ANNUAL MEET OF COMMUNITY SERVICE

Officers Elected, Fifty-Six Directors Chosen

A goodly number of the representative citizens of Glendale were in attendance at a noonday luncheon meeting of Community Service.

It was the regular annual meeting held principally for the purpose of electing six members as directors. President Val Hollister presided and Ernest Tucker was secretary.

A financial report was submitted which brought out the fact that the budget was exceeded by only a small amount. On motion of Geo. Karr the report was unanimously adopted. The nominating committee was called on to make a report. Richardson D. White as chairman of the committee, reported as follows:

The nominating committee reports that the following were selected by lot to hold over for a second term:

Jesse E. Smith, C. E. Kimlin, Dr. Jessie Russell, A. R. Eastman, Spencer Robinson, T. D. Watson, A. L. Baird, Frank Ayars, Mrs. L. W. Bosserman, H. T. Brookmiller, C. C. Cooper, Miss Eva Daniels, Mrs. E. U. Emery, Col. J. D. Fraser, A. L. Ferguson, W. E. Hewitt, D. Ripley Jackson, Roy L. Kent, George Karr, Mrs. A. H. Montgomery, Mrs. E. B. Moore, Alex. Mitchell, Herman Nelson, Wm. H. Reeves, D. H. Smith, Mrs. M. L. Tight and Mrs. John Robert White.

The committee selects for your approval the following nominees to the board of directors of Community Service, to serve for a period of two years:

V. M. Hollister, Mrs. C. E. Hutchison, L. T. Rowley, R. D. White, Rev. C. M. Calderwood, Rev. Henry I. Rasmus, George U. Moyse, Mrs. A. A. Barton, W. A. Howe, A. T. Cowan, Mrs. E. S. McKee, Oliver G. Case, Mrs. Daniel Campbell, Dr. John Anderson, Mrs. J. C. Danford, Normal Hayhurst, W. A. Horn, Asa Hall, J. Arthur Myers.

The committee's report was acted on favorably. It accounts for 56 members of the board of directors and leaves four vacancies which may be filled later on in the year as the occasion may require. The election of officers was next held, the following being chosen: A. L. Baird, president; Mrs. J. R. Case, Jr., J. D. Frazier and George Moyse, vice presidents; Dr. Jessie A. Russell, recording secretary; C. C. Cooper, treasurer.

GLENDALE C. OF C. DIRECTORS TO MEET

Glendale Chamber of Commerce directors will meet tonight to elect officers and to appoint two additional directors. The board is composed of the following citizens: W. E. Hewitt, R. F. Kitterman, A. R. Eastman, P. J. Hayselden, E. C. Pendroy, George Bentley, Delos H. Smith, C. W. Ingledue, Harry MacBain, George G. Karr, Lyman P. Clark and Fred Deal.

WOUNDED MAN STILL IN CRITICAL SHAPE

WOUNDED MAN STILL

J. M. Barnett of Los Angeles, who was shot in the abdomen last Thursday night, in Glendale, following an altercation, rested a little better last night. He is still in a critical condition, however, at the Glendale Sanitarium and hospital.

MEET GRID HEROES YE GLENDALIANS

Glendalians will be given an opportunity to meet members of the football teams who will play for the championship of Southern California Saturday afternoon in the Los Angeles Coliseum against Long Beach Polytechnic high school, in a special assembly Thursday night in the auditorium of Glendale Union high school.

Citizens who desire to learn the high school yells will be given an opportunity to do so. Archie Neel of 105 West Mountain street, and Boyd Taylor of 2306 West Myrtle street, Eagle Rock, are yell leaders.

Football rallies will be held tomorrow at two specially-called assemblies to do honor to the teams.

GLENDALE'S CLINIC IS PROVING ITS WORTH

Glendale's municipal clinic, which is the only one in this vicinity, already is proving its usefulness. Two sonsilectomies were performed yesterday and four last Monday by Dr. O. E. Ghrist. Mrs. J. D. DeHaven of 1017 Crescent drive, city bacteriologist, is now making the bi-monthly tests of samples of milk sold by the fifteen dairies which supply the local territory.

IT IS HOPED SOME HONEST PERSON HAS FOUND THAT PURSE

Did you find that purse?

Between 8:30 and 12 o'clock Monday morning, Bonnie Jean, the dainty Miss of the Daily Press staff, who is so ably assisting the ladies of Glendale in selecting things for their homes, lost a little black billfold containing $20 in bills. It is believed to have been lost somewhere on North Brand boulevard, near the Glendale Press office, but if not there, it may have been dropped anywhere in the business section of Glendale.

Bonnie needs that money. She is a hard working girl and that $20 looks mighty big to her.

Bonnie wasn't saving that money to pay off the family mortgage, and neither was she going to give it to any children's home society. She was going to use it for her own day-by-day expenses, just as any other hard-working girl should do. She really can't afford to lose that money, and she is hoping that the person who found it will be honest enough to bring it to the Press office, 333 North Brand boulevard.

Glendale is noted for the honesty of her citizens. Can the person who found that billfold qualify?

Receipts in the fold were made out to Jennie Swenson.

NEW DIRECTORS FOR BURBANK C. OF C. CHOSEN

The special meeting for the election of officers and directors of the Burbank chamber of commerce was called to order last night at 8 o'clock in the Edison school building, by President Riley. All the members of the board were present with the exception of Walter Story. There were about 25 members who were progressive and interested in the election and the activities of the chamber, who were present.

Secretary Collins read to the members the report stating the activities of the board since he held office, from last February until the present time, and the present financial status.

He then read to the members article 5 of the constitution of the chamber of commerce as it had been amended to read as follows: "The regular meeting of the board of directors shall be held on the third Thursday of each month. The regular membership or open forum meetings shall be held on the fourth Thursday of each month and the regular membership meeting for the election of officers shall be held on the first Monday in December." After the reading of this article it was moved by Collins and seconded by Anderson that the same be adopted as read. Carried.

The new officers and directors were then voted on and Chas. Kline, Harvey Ling and Harry Bertrand were appointed as tellers. The returns were as follows: A. E. Dufur, 23 votes Ray W. Sence, 22; E. O. Stumbo, 16; Tom Walker, 16; Dave Bricker, 15; Dr. David Thompson, 15; Claud H. Shettel, 13; R. W. Colburn, 13; K. K. Simpson, 12. A .E. Dufur is president, having the largest number of votes and Ray W. Sence, coming second, is vice president and treasurer.

A very interesting and inspiring talk was given by Mr. Collins on the necessity of a chamber of commerce in and to a community and he stated that the old board would do everything to cooperate with the new board and would back the chamber with all their might. Short addresses were given by Tom Walker, Mr. Hollomon, Mr. Ling and Mr. Radcliff on the chamber of commerce and its functions. Mr. Charleville from the Bell chamber of commerce gave a short talk on the wonderful possibilities of Burbank.

A vote of thanks and a rousing good cheer was given to the retiring board ond directors and Mr. Radcliff closed the meeting by wishing their successors good luck and that they might have one of the best years in the chamber's history. The next regular meeting will be on December 20.

Following is Secretary Collins' report for the period from February 1, 1923, to date: Total collection for dues, $3764.54; collection for booklet, $1212.50; total, $4977.04; deposited in bank, $4972.04; cash on hand, $5.00; total, $4977.04.

TWO BURGLARIES ARE BEING PROBED BY POLICE

Two burglaries are being investigated by the Glendale police department. W. E. Heald, jeweler at 125 West Broadway, yesterday had his home at 308 East Lomita avenue entered and completely ransacked. A pass key was used to open the front door. A trunk was broken open and a tin box of valuables broken open. Documents were taken out and hidden under a robe on the longue.

Stolen articles consisted of a few old coins, a gold dollar attached to a small ring, a 45 calibre Colt and a 25 calibre automatic revolver.

Detective Sergeant George P. Blake, who investigated the burglary, reported that the burglar had worn gloves and had left no finger prints.

Col. James W. Everington, who is building a new home at 1641 Ben Lomond drive, has reported the theft of two tents and two blankets and other articles from his garage. Entrance was gained by prying the padlock off.

A saxophone belonging to A. L. Hudson of 528 North Jackson street, which was stolen recently, yesterday was located in a Pasadena pawn shop. An attempt to locate the person who pawned it for $50 proved futile because he gave a fictitious address. He gave the name of C. H. Wilson.

BEST ATHLETES IN SOUTHLAND TO MEET AT OCCIDENTAL

The best athletes in the Southland will come to Patterson field, Occidental college, Saturday. The first big meet of the year is scheduled to bring every college in this section of the state here, with a full quota both of men who have made a college letter and those who are freshmen. Besides the college men, there will be High school and prep athletes entered. The idea of the meet, according to Coach Pipal of Oxy, who is fostering the affair, is to get the men into full condition for the regular spring meets; this will also help the coaches uncover new material, and keep the fellows in as near a perfect physical condition as possible. Several hundred fine, red-blooded young son's of America will be present; and the picking of the varsity teams will probably be chosen from the results. Entries will be given in the next day or two, showing how many High school and colleges will be represented.

CENTRAL AVENUE, 100 FEET WIDE, IS STILL THE SLOGAN

The Central Avenue Improvement associatoin of Glendale met last night at 525 South Central avenue in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Marshall.

Enthusiasm was expressed over the opportunity of beautifying Central avenue by widening, lighting and repaving. It seemed that the improvements should extend from San Fernando road to Arden avenue. In view of the necessity of wider streets for traffic and parking a width of 100 feet was favored. Attention was called to the congestion on West Broadway because of its narrowness.

A canvass of all interested property owners was suggested and W. T. Wallace was appointed as director. Reports will be made at the same place Monday night.

GLENDALE TO HAVE TWO MORE "COPS"

Look out! Glendale is to have two more cops. At the meeting of the council last night, on motion of Councilman Horn another traffic officer was ordered appointed and another motor officer, to take the place of Officer Baugh, who is still in the hospital as a result of his accident while on duty some time ago, was ordered employed.

On this question Councilman Davis voted "no."

EDUCATION BOARD IN BUSY MEETING TONIGHT

Several matters of interest to the grammar school system will be discussed tonight by the Glendale board of education.

Dr. G. Kaemmerling, city health officer, is expected to invite school children of Glendale to make use of the new municipal clinic established in connection with the health department on the second floor of the old Tropico city hall building.

Dates for the Christmas vacation will be definitely set.

The possibility of a flood from Sycamore canyon overflowing the Broadway school grounds will be brought up and a committee is expected to be appointed to investigate the probability.

Future use for the Magnolia school house, which has been abandoned for school purposes, will be discussed. Architect Charles C. Rittenhouse of 1319 South Orange avenue has estimated that it would cost about $4000 to rebuild it into a kindergarten building.

Another subject to be discussed is the Harding Memorial fund.

DYNAMITERS IN BIG EATFEST LAST NIGHT

Given Royal Banquet at Cafe, Then Film Treat By "Uncle Bill"

You should have seen those fellows eat!

If you had you would not have wondered how and why they have been able to battle their way almost to the top of the "heap."

That Glendale High football team is a "going bunch"—and they can go just as fast at the banquet table as they can on the football field. Coach Hayhurst and "Prof." Moyse will back up this statement.

These boys gathered last night at the "Chateau de Qualite," 108 East Broadway, where they were the guests of Manager Dennis of that cafe. Along with them went the coaches and trainer, the "Prof." and the "Assistant Prof." making it one of the finest "family gatherings" ever assembled.

The crowd met at the High school and went in a body to the cafe. The tables in the center of the room had been reserved for them and soon they were gathered around the festive board, as they say. There was the usual hungry and eager look with an occasional ear-to-ear grin, when someone happened to drop a remark about the approaching slaughter.

Then the fireworks started. The rest can be imagined.

And such a feed! The "Chateau de Qualite" is noted for its wonderfully cooked and seasoned viands, but the dinner last night was absolutely supreme.

There was baked ham, the kind the old mammies in the south used to prepare, that "melt in your mouth" variety, with candied sweet

EAGLE ROCK KIDDIES ARE SAFEGUARDED FROM AUTOISTS

At last the children are to be given the protection they need in crossing the streets. The city had a crew out yesterday painting the "School—Stop" signs. As yet the street cars have not put up their signs, but action will undoubtedly be taken to soon have them come to a complete stop at these marks. Every one driving up to these lines is supposed to stop and then proceed slowly until he passes the marks. The railway cars according to the law will have to stop, also.

The police department advises that if autoists and other drivers wish to save $25 each they should come to a complete stop at the places where the school "stop" signs are painted. Two are on Colorado and one is on Central. They are big enough to be easily seen. Watch for them.

SHALL GLENDALE'S FUTURE GROWTH BE STUNTED? REGISTER

Registered yet?

Saturday is the last day you will have to register if you are to vote at the coming bond election for Glendale's sewers. Probably hundreds of Glendale people have moved from their former precincts since the time they registered last. These folks must register again before Saturday night or they will not be able to have a voice in the coming bond election, which is without doubt the most important matter that has ever been presented to the voters of this city.

Without sewers Glendale's progress will be slow. It cannot keep up at the present rate because this city has reached its limit of growth as a cesspool community. There must be sewers at the earliest possible moment for the business section and close-in residential portions of the city.

With sewers there is no limit to progress that may be attained by this city. Big outside capital, it is understood, is waiting to come in—waiting to see what attitude the people of Glendale will take on the voting of the bonds.

Mrs. Harriet Thompson, an employe of the Daily Press, 333 North Brand boulevard, is registrar. She may be seen from 8 until 5 daily and in the evening by appointment.

TORCH LIGHTING AT POMONA IS MOST IMPRESSIVE

Declared by many to have been the most impressive feature of the Hi-Y convention just closed at Pomona was the torch lighting ceremony that took place on Saturday evening, when delegates from the Hi-Y club of Southern California, from Santa Barbara to San Diego, passed the light of their torch on to their neighbors and pledged their support in carrying the light of Christianity around the world for world brotherhood.

Those attending the convention from Glendale included Robert Hatch, Clifford Wolcott, Harold W. Heacock, Harwin Mann, Forest Krug, Riley Lyons, Porter Thompson, Harold Rhodes, Neal E. Sooy, Lyle McAllister, Charles W. Thompson, Kenneth Lee, Fred Appleton, Shirley Preston, Laufman Jeter, Arlin McCormack, Golburn Danner, Howard I. Butterfield, David Black, M. P. Harrison, W. G. Boyd, C. W. Ingledue, H. L. Finlay and Rex C. Kelley.

On arriving at Pomona Friday afternoon the boys were met by members of the Pomona Hi-Y and were taken in machines to the homes of various people in that city, where they were lodged, returning to the Y. M. C. A. building for the opening banquet in the evening. Dr. Frank Burns, president of the Pomona Kiwanis club, was toastmaster. Addresses of welcome were given by city officials and representatives of various organizations. Rev. Bob Shuler was the main speaker, his talk centering around the fact that all earthly light had but one source, the sun, while all spiritual light came to the world likewise from an only source—God.

The theme for the entire convention was "The Torch." A large lighted torch on the stage carried out this idea. On Saturday morning, Dr. Daniel Fox of Pasadena made an address to the convention on "Carrying the Torch," giving the boys a challenge to carry the torch into their school activities, homes and cities. The Glendale boys went to Occidental on Saturday afternoon to witness the Glendale vs. Santa Monica football game. They returned to Pomona on Saturday night. The program for the evening included a talk on conditions in the near east by Ray Moreman, a near east relief worker at Smyrna. Ernest Galazra, a Mexican boy, gave a splendid address, appealing to the high school boys to give more consideration to the foreigner, and also told of some of his own experiences. Other talks along similar lines were given by boys from Sweden, South America and other countries. The program for that night closed with the torch ceremony. Pasadena was chosen as the place for the 1924 convention and Glendale is putting in a request for 1925.

Leon V. Shaw of Pasadena gave an address on "Will You Take up the Torch?" at the Sunday meeting. Many of the boys reponded splendidly to his appeal.

DEADLOCK IN HOUSE STILL DELAYS

Insurgents Still Throw Bulk of Strength To Cooper

[By Associated Press]

WASHINGTON, Dec. 4.—The insurgent bloc in the house which has tied the hands of the new congress by refusing to support Speaker Gillett for re-election, militantly carried forward today its campaign of opposition.

As balloting in the speakership deadlock continued, the division of votes was much the same as in the four futile ballots taken yesterday. There were many rumors of a compromise, but the insurgent leaders met all inquiries with a declaration that they were as far as ever from surrendering.

Speaker Gillett, the republican choice, and Representative Garrett of Tennessee, endorsed by the democrats, were almost on an equality in today's voting and the total for each remained about ten votes short of the majority necessary to elect.

The bulk of the insurgent strength was cast, as on yesterday, for Representative Cooper of Wisconsin.

Meantime the senate, whose leaders maintain it can only meet and adjourn until the house has perfected its organization, held a brief session at which there was no attempt to transact business.

The leaders of the republican house organization have taken the position that they cannot consistently discuss a compromise with the insurgent bloc as such, although they said today they were willing to listen to individual requests for changes in committee assignments and in rules—the two points on which the insurgents have focused their attack.

Eighth ballot: Garrett 198; Gillett 197; Cooper 17; Madden 5. Garrett lacked 11 of a majority.

VENERABLE DIVINE OF GLENDALE BADLY HURT

Rev. A. B. Smart of 110 North Olive street, Glendale, was seriously injured in Los Angeles Monday afternoon, December 3, when a heavy truck knocked him down as he was leaving the preacher's meeting on his way to a car. He was rushed to the receiving hospital, where it was found he was suffering from a broken arm and several broken ribs. His daughter, Mrs. Cora F. Root, who is employed in the Los Angeles court house, was immediately notified of the accident. She notified Dr. H. G. Westphal of the Glendale Salitarium hospital, where Rev. Smart was shortly removed. X-rays are being taken for further injuries. It is hoped that Rev. Smart will soon be around again. He will be 85 years of age the 27th of this month.

BURBANK REALTORS ELECT NEW OFFICERS

The annual election of officers for the Realty board was held last night in the Goodfellows' hall. H. Walston was elected president, W. A. Thompson, vice-president, and Arthur Holgate, secretary-treasurer. No committees were appointed last night. This will be done at the next meeting, which will be held in two weeks. This is to be an open meeting for all real estate people, regardless of whether or not they are members of the board, for the purpose of re-organizing.

RECKLESS DRIVERS GO TO COUNTY JAIL

Charged with reckless driving while going through La Crescenta Sunday morning, A. Calxez and Louis Gonzales yesterday afternoon were taken from the Glendale city jail to the county jail by Deputy Sheriff F. G. Wen.

Glendale's Sewer

EXPERT INFORMATION FURNISHED DAILY ON THIS GREAT PROJECT

(In this column will appear from day to day, comments on the sewer project, which is the biggest thing that has ever confronted the citizens of Glendale. These articles are prepared by the publicity committee of the sewer committee of the chamber of commerce and may be considered as expert information.)

THE ENGINEERS

The city officials have retained the Burns & McDonnell Engineering company of Los Angeles, California, and Kansas City, Missouri, to prepare the complete plans, estimates, specifications and supervise the construction work of the sanitary sewer system. That the public may be informed as to who the engineers are and why they were selected, the following information is given:

The firm was organized over 25 years ago by Clinton S. Burns and R. E. McDonnell, to specialize in sanitary and hydraulic municipal engineering, consisting of the designing of sewer systems, sewage disposal, waterworks and lighting plants, and the valuation of public utilities. The general scope and extent of their past work consists of over 500 engagements in 350 cities and 32 states, of which 128 have been on sewer designing. Some of the larger cities in the various states where this firm has previously been retained as consulting engineers are South Bend, Indiana; Springfield, Illinois; Des Moines, Ceder Rapids, Sioux City and Davenport, Iowa; Kansas City, St. Joseph and Joplin, Missouri; Omaha and Lincoln, Nebraska; Oklahoma City, Oklahoma; Great Falls, Montana; Cheyenne, Wyoming; Everett, Washington, and Berkeley, California. The firm has a national reputation in its special line of engineering and has furthermore previously served the city of Glendale, having been employing in 1912 under the administration of former Mayor Thos. W. Watson to make the valuation of the waterworks system when the city acquired the property.

The personnel of the staff of the firm is: Clinton S. Burns, graduate of Stanford University engineering school, member of American Society of Civil Engineers, member American Society Consulting Engineers; Robert E. McDonnell, graduate of Stanford University engineering school, member American Society of Civil Engineers, American Waterworks association; Chester A. Smith, graduate of Kansas University engineering school, member American Society of Civil Engineers; Robert L. Baldwin, graduate of Missouri University engineering school, member American Institute of Electrical Engineers; Carl F. Lambert, graduate Case school of Applied Science, member American Institute of Mechanical Engineers.

Besides the above members of the firms, a large organization of technically trained and experienced associate engineers is maintained.

On account of the wide experience of this firm, specializing particularly in sanitary engineering and having excellent references from cities where they have performed similar engineering engagements, the firm of Burns & McDonnell was selected to design and supervise the construction of the sewer system.

LAST PRACTICE GAME AT HIGH SCHOOL GYM

An interesting time is promised for all those attending the practice game to be held tonight at the Glendale High school gymnasium when the boys of Glendale Post No. 127 will play the basketball team of the First Methodist church of Glendale. This will be the last practice game of the season. The Legion series will begin next Tuesday when Glendale Post No. 127 will play Los Angeles Post No. 8 at Glendale in the High school gymnasium. The Legion team of Glendale has been showing up very well and shows promise of surpassing its record of last year when it was runner-up for the Southern California Legion championship.

THE WEATHER

Southern California: Fair tonight; Wednesday light to heavy frost in exposed places and interior in early morning, gentle northerly winds.

NEW MORTUARY OF L. G. SCOVERN TO BE DISTINCTIVE

Louis G. Scovern's new mortuary at 828 South Brand boulevard is over half completed and Mr. Scovern expects to move from his present quarters are 1000 South Brand boulevard to his new establishment about the middle of January.

C. A. Cornell, president of the Cornell Construction company, says that he sees no reason why the building cannot be finished upon schedule.

Resembling somewhat a small church in exterior appearance, the new structure has been the object of considerable comment upon the part of inquisitive motorists. When completed and its full architectural beauty developed, Mr. Scovern believes that the building will attract still more attention. Proud as he is of this community, he is determined that it shall be another show place for Glendale.

All exterior walls of the building are of concrete re-inforced with steel. The front will be ornamented with mission tile and grilled balcony windows at both floors.

The chapel, which will be 36 by 36 feet in size, will have a seating capacity of about 200 on the first floor. The organ and accomodations for about 75 additional persons will be placed upon the balcony. This is about 12½ by 25 feet in size. A family room will be located in the rear of the chapel.

The south side of the building, which fronts on Garfield avenue, will have offices upon the lower floor and a six-room apartment upon the second floor. The north side of the building consists of layout rooms on the first floor and a casket display room, 20 by 75 feet in size, on the second floor.

An eight-car garage is being built in the rear of the edifice. This will be entered through a driveway 20 feet wide along the north side of the mortuary. It will have another entrance from the alley.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Riehl and daughter De Forrest of 917 North Louise street, entertained at dinner last Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Sterling B. Christian of San Pedro, Mrs. James B. Bainard of Long Beach, and Mrs. Effie Schelette of this city. The Riehls and their guests were all former residents of Hotchkiss, Colorado, and vicinity, so the day was pleasantly spent in talking over old times back in the little Colorado town, but all agreed that Southern California would have them for permanent residents.

HERE'S A CHANCE TO DISPLAY REAL CHRISTMAS SPIRIT

For those who take pleasure in the Christmas spirit of making others happy, the case brought to the attention of the readers by Dr. Hannah Luella Hukill will be of special interest. An ex-Confederate soldier, 78 years of age, who lost everything he had during the San Francisco earthquake, is living in a tent along the Los Angeles riverbed, his only income being $12 a month that he is allowed by the flood control people.

According to Dr. Hukill, the man was employed as night watchman by the flood control people. While on his round of duty he accidentally fell into the river, contracting pneumonia and was in the hospital for some time. He is in quite good health at present and prefers to live where he is rather, than go to the county farm. He has no stove and his tent is only large enough for his cot and a table.

An effort is being made to raise $50 with which to purchase a building which was formerly used as a real estate office. The flood control employes have offered to move it to the river bed site free of charge. Those who would like to help in this cause may secure further particulars from Dr. Hukill, Glendale 607-W.

LOS ANGELES LAW FIRM TO ASSIST ON SEWER BONDS

The Los Angeles law firm of C. Melveny, Millaken, Tuller & MacNeil, has been retained by the Glendale city council to assist the Glendale city attorney in connection with the proceedings for the proposed sewer bonds and to furnish a written opinion for use in the sale of said bonds.

This firm is being granted a retainer of $500 to cover preliminary work and will be given a further sum of $2,000 when and if said bonds are voted.

The motion to retain this firm was made by Councilman Kimlin and the vote on the question was as follows: Ayes, Kimlin, Hall and Horn; Noes, Davis and Robinson.

On the motion to use $500 from the supply and expense fund for the improvements of streets to pay the initial expenses of the Los Angeles law firm, which was presented by Councilman Horn, the vote was as follows: Ayes, Hall, Horn and Kimlin; Noes, Robinson and Davis.

Almost any man can convince a woman that he loves her, but he has to work overtime in order to keep her convinced.

WOULD DEVELOP DISTRICT EAST OF VERDUGO ROAD

A movement is on foot for the development of that wonderful district east of the Verdugo road from a point north of the south line of the Rossmoyne tract, which extends south to about the old Glendale reservoir, near the junction of Glendale avenue and Verdugo, to the south line of the Sparr Heights tract. This will include all of the Rossmoyne ranch located east of Verdugo, the F. P. Newport property, the old Glendale-Verdugo park and other prominent pieces.

T. W. Watson, who is the prime mover of this development work, appeared before the Glendale city council last night with a petition which, he claimed, was signed by at least 70 percent of the property owners in the district outlined. This petition asked that the council take immediate steps toward the establishment of a water distribution system in that entire section, which consists of more than 1000 acres. The matter was referred jointly to the city engineer and the superintendent of plant and production with instructions that they bring in at the earliest possible moment recommendations in the matter.

"We have planned a road some distance east of the Verdugo road and paralleling that highway," said Mr. Watson in presenting this matter. This proposed road will not run along the ridge of the hills, but only about half way up. It will open practically all of that entire section and will, when finished, be one of the most scenic highways in this section. We believe this is one of the most wonderful pieces of property in all Southern California and the public will realize this fact just as soon as it is presented.

ACTIVITIES BURBANK C. OF C. DIRECTORS SET FORTH

Following is the report made to the Burbank chamber of commerce last night by Secretary Collins:

To the members of the Burbank Chamber of Commerce, greeting:

There are many small and ordinary functions of the chamber of commerce of which no particular note can be made at any time. These embrace such functions as meeting the public, which is at all times seeking information upon innumerable and divers questions. Among these is detailed information as to population, hotel accommodations, available rentals, number of factories, number of men employed, volume of their business, number of banks, their clearings, total savings and commercial deposits, statistical reports for financial institutions and reporting agencies as to population and comparative population for every year since the founding of the city.

It is also necessary, at times, to compile statistics for schools, covering the history of the city, population, the number of miles of improved streets, increase in water, electric and gas connections as compared with other years, bonded indebtedness and comparisons, religious comparisons, number of churches and memberships of each, all of which are a small number of the things that the chamber of commerce is called upon to answer and compile every day.

The major accomplishments and duties of the chamber of commerce for the past year are represented in the following activities:

1—The board of directors have held their regular monthly meeting every third Thursday of each month since holding office;

2—The board was active and took an interest in the sale of the frontage which served as a guarantee for the location of the Gordon-Orms company;

3—Paid out all outstanding indebtedness at the time the new board took office;

4—Compiled, issued, and paid for 10,000 Burbank booklets, of which number 8500 have been distributed in fields that have brought results and many inquiries; also compiled a mailing list of about 1500 for mailing of said booklets;

5—Handled about seventy-five industrial propositions and applications;

6—Accepted resignation of R. W. Colburn, executive secretary, and appointed Mary T. Swift as acting secretary;

7—Moved offices from city hall to the present offices in the Gregg building on the corner of Olive and San Fernando boulevard;

8—Paid $50 to the Associated Chambers of Commerce for placing Burbank on the map during the exposition held last fall;

9—appointed an active committee to get in touch with the Los Angeles supervisor and other interested parties, in connection and regarding the widening of and the paving of San Fernando road; (macadamized paving from curb to curb);

10—Two resolutions were adopted, first, that the board of directors of the chamber of commerce, during the event of a national emergency and mobilization of the National Guard, will cooperate with the militray authorities in the securing of recruits and raising a company fund for the Burbank organization, Company L, 160th infantry. Second: That the Burbank chamber of commerce petition all senators and representatives of the United States to use every means in their power to provide sufficient funds and support in order that the navy of the United States may be brought to and maintained at the standard necessary to its proper functioning.

11—A committee was appointed to appear before the board of trustees in regard to signs being placed on the San Fernando and Lankershim boulvards and one at Pass avenue. It was reported that the signs have been placed.

12—It was moved and seconded that Article five of the constitution of the Burbank chamber of commerce be amended to read as follows: "The regular meetings of the board of directors shall be held on the third Thursday of each month. The regular membership or open forum meetings shall be held on the fourth Thursday of each month. The regular membership meeting for the election of officers shall be held on the first Monday in December." Carried.

13—There are about 210 members in good standing.

MONTROSE NOTES

Friday evening, December 7, should be kept open by the people of Montrose in order that everyone may attend the community sing to be held in the new school house. The attendance at this gathering will determine whether or not organization can be made at this time and it is hoped that the community spirit and cooperation for which Montrose is noted will be manifested by a large attendance. A delightful program is being arranged to make the evening one of pleasure. The meeting will commence at 8 o'clock.

This is chamber of commerce night, and the meeting will be attended by every booster and Montrose enthusiast in this community. A half hour of community singing will precede the regular business session. Matters of interest to the business men and residents of the district will be taken up and some problems which need the attention of every public spirited citizen will be discussed. The meeting will commence at 8 o'clock and will be held in the Montrose school house.

Among the Montrose people who attended the dance at the La Crescenta school house Saturday night were Mr. and Mrs. Sheridan Young, Mr. and Mrs. C. Colts, Joseph Belanger and Miss Belanger. Everyone enjoyed a most delightful time, although the wind kept many at home that evening.

George Charbonneau and Miss Cecil Matthews spent a delightful day at Balboa Beach Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Howard enjoyed Sunday at one of the local beaches.

Mr. and Mrs. William Evans have taken possession of their new and modern home on Waltonia drive. The cottage was completed just a few days ago and is very charmingly arranged. As a surprise to Mrs. Evans her husband purchased a beautiful Brunswick phonograph and had it placed in the new home before her arrival there.

N. V. Flint of Montrose, has leased a store room in Tujunga where he will place a vegetable and fruit stand. This will make the fifth of a string of the stands which Mr. Flint has placed in and around the valley, including the one in Montrose.

With Christmas just a few weeks away many of the stores here are decorating their windows and show cases with holiday novelties. One of the most pleasing windows in Montrose is one draped with red streamers, Christmas bells and evergreen, while artificial snow, piled on the floor of the window, gives a charming effect. The window contains innumerable electrical appliances suitable for gifts.

Those who were startled by the shrill voice of the siren Monday afternoon need not be alarmed. The siren was merely being tried out from the compression tank on the Mead service station. Working with the Montrose chamber of commerce and the County Fire Protection league, Mr. Mead was trying the effectiveness of the siren with a view to securing one as a fire and burglar alarm for the protection of Montrose business houses and residences. Mr. Mead is chairman of a committee appointed to investigate ways and means of securing necessary equipment for this purpose.

Let us be of good cheer, however, remembering that the misfortunes hardest to bear are those that never come.—Lowell.

It follows not, because the hair is rough, the dog's a savage one.—Sheridan Knowles.

TESTIMONY BARRED

For a wife to testify against her husband when he is charged with crime, is inhibited. The result of this does not seem to be in favor of justice. Lawyers when asked why there is such a statute in force are unable to give good reason for it.

In a murder case now under consideration, a man engaged in burglary shot and killed a policeman. The wife of the burglar accompanied him, and was captured before he was. She confessed her part in the affair, and stated definitely that the shooting had been done by her husband. There was evidence that she had not done it herself, for although she carried a deadly weapon, it had not been discharged. So far as known this woman was the only witness of the crime. Had she not been married to the accused, but been with him in the capacity of friend and partner, her word could be accepted. Were proof to be adduced that the couple had not been legally united, but that their so-called marriage had been contracted while one or the other already was a married person, then by this circumstance the testimony now rejected might have been accepted.

There is not the slightest reason for doubting that the woman has told the truth. Nevertheless, she cannot be put on the stand to repeat it. Not even her confession involving the other prisoner can be considered. In the absence of other testimony, or definite circumstantial evidence, the accused will have a right to shield himself to the end behind the familiar "presumption of innocence." While this will be recognized as a subterfuge, the jury will be obliged to regard it as having foundation, although each member will be aware that justice is being cheated.

WAR AND CHARITY

This country saw the distress of Europe. It had begun to feel the pressure of an overseas tyranny. It held the opinion that there should be a war, directed to the ending of all wars. It went to the rescue of Europe, employing many measures of relief in doing so. It expended vast sums and it raised a vast army, millions of whom it sent to Europe. Out of the poverty created by the conflict were extended gaunt hands asking for alms. These the people of the United States filled, without question and without demur.

The war that was to have been final seemed to end with an armistice, the signing of which still is celebrated annually. Nevertheless the signing of that armistice was a world tragedy. From the conditions it created have sprung the appalling conditions of today. Reports from abroad are that Germany is preparing again for war. The outcome of another great conflict there could not be calculated. But the changed attitude of the people of the United States is a certainty. There should have been an arrangement making war impossible; there was a time when the making of such an arrangement seemed near. The exact responsibility for failure perhaps history will be able to place.

From Europe come tales of want, of unemployment, of actual and dire hunger. The plea to charity is renewed and emphasized. And this is the same Europe, that unable to pay its debts, to feed its people, is able to train great armies to be ready for another clash. The mind becomes confused in contemplation of such an anomoly.

OBEYING SIGNALS

One of the common failings of automobilists is in relation to signals. They fail to obey these guides to safety, or they fail to give them, which is equally a duty.

At the railroad crossing there is a visible signal, and an audible one. The first swings suggestively across the line of view, and the other dins its metallic note into the air. Many drivers who both see and hear, take chances. Occasionally they get through unscathed, but as to a large proportion, the rest of the story is to be found in the record of hospital or morgue.

The competent and thoughtful driver never fails to give signals to make known his intent to the driver behind him. If he is about to turn to the right he extends his arms upwards, if to the left the extended arm is held out straight. If he plans to stop or to slow down, he lets the fact be known by showing his hand, pointing downwards, with the palm reversed. This is a simple set of rules. The violation of any one of them is a stupid error, a challenge to disaster. Nor does a driver in the rear suddenly sweep by the one in front without signifying by horn what he is going to do.

A review of drivers' shortcoming, many of them having resulted in serious accident, shows that the neglect to heed signals is common, but that neglect to give them is the principal and habitual offense. If the driver does not care as to risking his own bones at least he should be courteous to other drivers, who may set a higher valuation on these essentials.

CONQUERING PNEUMOCOCCUS

From medical source that seems worthy of all respect comes the report that the germ causing pneumonia has been conquered. If this is true the triumph must be reckoned among the greatest ever achieved by science. And it might be true. The claim presents nothing of the silly aspect which is the principal feature in some other claims.

Occasionally somebody heralds to the world his ability to overcome old age and render youth perpetual. He even professes to be able to lead doddering senility back to the flowered fields of the long ago where he may frisk with the abandon of childhood. Just now one has advanced soberly some system or dope by which the human frame is to be made tireless. Then will work be without weariness. No more will the ditch digger be troubled by aching muscles, while the man who follows the plow will never know fatigue. Then the sprinter will go a mile without strain on his energies. The thought comes to mind that as nobody will need a rest, the working day may be extended to twenty-four hours.

But despite the maunderings of pseudo-scientists, real search is being made by real scientists. More than one disease once greatly dreaded, its appearance sufficient to create panic, has been so subdued as virtually to be banished. Were pneumonia to be added to the list it would be perhaps the most important of all. This has been a baffling malady. Often it has seized upon the strongest, and swept them from life as though they had no constitutional power of resistance. There has been no cure, and hardly a definite plan of treatment. It is known to be a germ disease. When this was ascertained, by that alone, a great step had been taken towards its ultimate defeat.

Some of the suburban districts of this community are without fire protection. This costs the residents more for insurance, and is likely to cost them whatever buildings get ablaze. A recent illustration was in Altadena where an expensive garage with all its content was destroyed Thanksgiving night. But for the absence of wind the mansion of the owner would have gone, too. There was a large and sympathetic crowd on hand to view the spectacle, but the only water was from a futile garden hose.

Discovery is made that Denver motorists have been fined for violation of a non-existent law. This does not give them much reason to complain. Probably every one in the lot has escaued being fined for violations of laws really existing.

GIRLS AND LATCH KEYS

By ESTELLE LAWTON LINDSEY

People who think in formulas will congeal when they read a recent interview given out by Mrs. Oliver H. P. Belmont, president of the woman's national party, yet those same people are largely of the class which is publicly bewailing the increase of divorce.

Estelle Lawton Lindsey

Unwise marriages make fat attorneys and overcrowds our orphanages, and hampering home conditions drive girls to marry unwisely. There you have the vicious circle. Grown daughters denied liberty by parents marry out of slavery, as they believe, but a woman who is a slave to her parents is likely to be a slave to her husband, until she divorces him.

So, according to Mrs. Belmont, it is better for girls to secure freedom before they marry and pick their husbands for other reasons than as avenues of escape from oppressive home conditions.

The best way to secure such freedom is for every girl to establish a home of her own away from the parental roof as soon as she is 21. The home may be one room or many; the point is that the girl should be self-supporting and self-directing, free to study men without the warping effect of family criticism and at liberty to marry because she wants a husband and not because she wants to get away from home.

It will take our society a long time to become accustomed to this idea. We still think of feminine freedom as the Siamese twin of immorality; and this in the face of the natural fact that every animal parent, every bird parent, forces its young out of the nest as soon as possible.

It is only humans that strive to keep grown children in a state of infantile subjection and so deprive them of the development that nothing but an independent life can give them.

I know mothers of 70 who still sit up for their daughters at night. Incidentally it is likely to be the daughters of such women who later sit up for their husbands at night, thereby, unconsciously perhaps, extending the slavery from which they have themselves suffered.

Last week a woman who has made a mess of her marriage said to me in extenuation:

"What could anybody expect? I was tied to my mother's apron strings before I was tied to my husband's shoe strings."

The whole trend of present day society is to extend confidence beyond home boundaries: If we want better homes we must have freer girls. There are many reasons why a girl may desire a home of her own and all of them may be honorable.

Mrs. Belmont's plan is worthy of scrutiny, little as the old-fashioned are likely to admit it.

WATCHING THE PARADE

By JOHN PILGRIM

We came mighty near having a scandal in our town this week. It's all smothered out now, of course. Most everything does smooth out in our town. But for a time it looked as though something unpleasant was about to happen. Tom Keegan told me about it.

"The police went in and beat up Henry King," said he.

Henry King is a sort of a worthless colored man who lives across the tracks. Nothing bad about Henny, but nothing very good about him either. He works a little and seems to be fond of his wife, and that's about all that can be said for him. The police thought Henny knew of something that had been going on and they broke into his house.

"Smashed right through his door," said Tom Keegan. "And bent a club over Henny's bald spot."

That wasn't all. When Henny insisted that he did not know what they were talking about, they took him to the station under arrest and charged him with having tried to pull a gun. Unfortunately they did not go clear through with this charge. Unfortunately for them. They forgot to produce the gun, although the desk sergeant always has a plenty of guns around the premises. So when Tom Keegan came down to see about it they had to let Henny go.

"We didn't know his wife works for you folks," said the chief of police. "No, sir, Mr. Keegan, I never heard that before. I wouldn't have laid a hand on Henny if I'd knows that."

The police are going to fix up Henny's dore, and Tom Keegan says he'll have a talk with the Rev. r. Ross and tell him not to preach about what happened to Henny, as he was going to do. The lauces are the Rev. Mr. Ross will listen to Tom, for Keegan's bank holds the mortgage on the church property, and more than once the interest has not been paid when due.

So it's all right. The threatened scandal has been smoothed away. Every one is satisfied except Henny.

THE LISTENING POST

By James W. Foley

JAMES W. FOLEY

A great oak fell.
As great oaks must do.
For living things die.
And having served their purposes. are resolved at last into their original elements.

* * *

Even the solid granite of the earth disappears by attrition.
Or erosion.
Until at last the mountain peak is worn.
Taking on a different shape and size.

* * *

All things of the universe are subject to change.
Someone has said that the only thing constant is change.
The orbits of the planets may change.
So slightly that the change may not be discernible.
But there is change nevertheless.

* * *

The shape of the planets may change.
Their size and aspect.
And even our own sun, the center of our solar system, is not the same as it was a hundred million years ago.

* * *

The grain of wheat is put into the earth.
There is change.
It germinates.
The life in it bursts forth.
And a green shoot comes through the ground.

* * *

There is chemical and physical change.
But in the end a stalk bears new grains.
And the original grain of wheat is reproduced in the new growth.
Reproduced a hundred times.
Change and rebirth and growth.

* * *

The grain of wheat was resolved to its elements.
The new stalk took back the original elements from the earth.
And wheat was recreated.
Nothing was lost.
One grain of wheat was changed into a score or a hundred new grains.
So with a good thing done in life.

* * *

And when the great oak fell men talked of it.
They said it had beauty.
For it was sturdy and symmetrical with leaf and trunk and limb.
They said it gave shade.
Which comforted men.

* * *

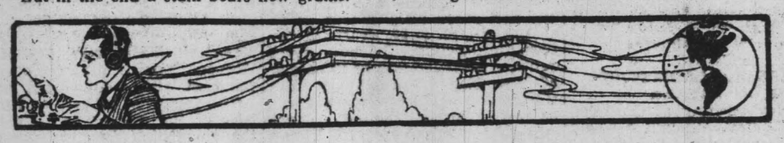
The fibre of it was burned.
And there was comforting heat in the stove or grate.
And the leaves of it were red and yellow in the Autumn.
And the eyes of men were rejoiced.

* * *

So with the passing of a good and kindly man.
Men remember.
He gave them courage.
Friendliness.

* * *

The forms of being change.
But of the spirit nothing is lost.
It goes on and on and is eternal.



Songs of the Poets

On the Tombs of Westminster Abbey—By Francis Beaumont (1586-1616)

Mortality, behold and fear!
What a change of flesh is here!
Think how many royal bones
Sleep within this heap of stones:
Here they lie had realms and lands,
Who now want strength to stir their hands:
Where from their pulpits seal'd with dust
They preach, "In greatness is no trust."
Here's an acre sown indeed
With the richest, royall'st seed
That the earth did e'er suck in
Since the first man died for sin:
Here the bones of birth have cried—
"Though gods they were, as men they died."
Here are sands, ignoble things,
Dropt from the ruin'd sides of kings;
Here's a world of pomp and state,
Buried in dust, once dead by fate.

KNOWING AND TELLING

By DR. FRANK CRANE

IT IS a mistake to say that if anyone knows a thing he can tell it.

This may be true of a problem in geometry or a date in history, and certain other school-book stuff. But in the vital affairs of life the things we know the best are the very ones we cannot put into words.

In fact making a cherry pie and making a correct sentence about it are two distinct things. Handicraft and word-craft are different. The man who raises the best musk melons speaks vile English.

Word stringing is a business in itself. The new word "jaw-smith" now circulating in the slang stratum of our language is correct in its feeling; it means a man who talks as a trade, just as a lock-smith mends locks as a trade.

Still truer is this in higher matters, where souls are concerned. A most reticent and untalking woman can love marvelously. The kindest people are those who say and can say least about kindness. And doubtless the deepest religion is felt by those who lack skill in expressing their religious feelings.

"It is not necessary," says Goethe, "that the truth be made clear; it is enough if it hovers about us like a spirit and produces harmony, if it vibrates through the air, gravely and kindly, like the sound of a bell."

For all that, talk has a distinct influence on efficiency. That is to say, the expression of one's ideas helps to clear up the ideas. One often discovers more exactly what he thinks by endeavoring to tell it.

This is the result of the law that any power in a man is increased by its forthputting. His arm becomes stronger when he exercises it. If he will not use his legs, bye and bye he cannot use them. Nature insists on her gifts being used. Fishes in the Mammoth Cave that live in darkness, and hence have no occasion to use their eyes, have their eyes atrophied.

For this reason it is well to give constant expression to any faculty which we wish to develop. If we never speak love nor act love, we will, in the course of time, cease to have love.

A tree must put out leaves or it will die.

Life is a force, and that force must find vent. We cannot store powder as we hoard money. It will increase only as wo spend it.

Very often if we have an indistinct idea, and will take pencil and paper and try to set down that idea in plain terms, we will find the idea clears up. So long as we simply knew it and did not tell it, we did not know it very well.

EASTERN POINT OF VIEW

INFANT CHAUFFEURS

[St. Louis Post Dispatch]

Until he is twenty-one years of age a boy is legally an infant. He cannot make a contract, he must be represented in lawsuits by an adult and he cannot marry without parental consent. He is not considered fully responsible.

But he can possess and drive a high-powered automobile, without any other preparation than the obtaining of a license. And he can, as sixteen-year-old Vincent Orcutt did on Sunday, hurl his machine through the streets at sixty miles an hour, or faster if the mechanism permits, running down other machines with their passengers, or killing and maiming pedestrians. In this case a baby was hurled fifty feet and instantly killed, its parents were injured, and the "infant" boy, with other youths and girls, evidently on a joy ride, escaped uninjured from the crash.

There are, of course, numerous adults as reckless as this boy. But age is supposed to bring care and thoughtfulness. If boys under twenty-one were to undertake to drive locomotives, they would be promptly stopped. Why should boys or girls be permitted to drive automobiles through the streets?

JOHNSON'S LACK OF FAITH

[Worcester Telegram]

The United States, even if it joins the World Court with the Hughes reservations, can never join the League of Nations without ratification by the senate of the league covenant. Yet Mr. Johnson fears joining the court will mean eventually joining the league. Such a fear indicates on Mr. Johnson's part a lack of faith in his case against the league or a lack of faith in the ability of the people to see the truth.

COMMENT ON DAY'S NEWS

By HENRY JAMES

Hundreds of Thanksgiving sermons were preached. Mny of these, or liberal excerpts, have been published. There was not one in which the preacher failed to cite abundant reasons for Americans to be grateful. In a troubled world they have been singularly blessed. They have escaped the blight of war, and over them hangs no threat. The prosperity they have in such abundance they may keep.

In these sermons, however, was note of warning against selfishness. In each was a plea for peace. Expressions of regret that the United States had not entered into an understanding with the powers of Europe by which there could be created an international tribunal competent to deal with matters such as now there is a tendency to settle at the point of the bayonet.

These serious men regretted the neglect of the past. They did not believe the future to be hopeless. They held that still there was love enough, Christianity enough, and common sense enough to make the various peoples conduct themselves more after the fashion to be expected of human beings.

To outlaw war as sternly as murder is outlawed was the general thought of Thanksgiving sermons. This nation alone cannot reform, the continents, but it may formulate plans that ultimately shall mean the dawn of a new and tranquil era.

United States soldiers are to get rid of the present olive drab and be equipped with uniforms having some style and pep. Certainly the boys deserve this consideration, and will be happier in blue with gold trimmings.

One change in the treatment of purveyors of poison liquor might be salutary. This would be in the treatment of offenders whose patrons have been killed by the spurious stiff, as violators, not only of the Volstead and Wright acts, and the constitution, but as plain murderers.

OUR CHILDREN

By ANGELO PATRI

THE NON-CONFORMIST

Once there was a bad boy who went to school and bothered everybody there from early morning to late afternoon. He bothered us all because he would not conform to the school regulations. Not that he balked at the program but rather at the way the program was carried out where he was concerned.

"The teacher is mad at me," he announced cheerfully as he advanced toward my desk. That desk was piled high with reports waiting to be read and signed and boys that teachers didn't like didn't appeal particularly to me just then so my greeting lacked cordiality.

"So? Why not?"

"She says I have to make a 't' with a tail on the end of it and I don't see why I can't make a hat on it if I wish." A nice straight line sitting on its head looks so much better," he drawled.

"Oh, is that it? Well, I haven't any special tastes about my 't's.' See that bunch of pink and white papers? They're a checking list for a load of supplies. Go down and sort them and count them and get the list ready for us to sign up. Then start them for the closets. That's a job more to your size."

"I'm your man," said David, and the supplies were checked down to the one primer that was short and a dozen penholders over.

"Their system isn't very good, though," said David. "Now why don't they put a check list in each case, then?"

"Because David, they're waiting for you to go down and help them. Meanwhile how about your afternoon't work?"

"I'm put out of English."

"What? Why? What in the world are you doing?"

"Nothing. She says to me, 'Write the title on the top line, center and sign your name on the center back,' and I couldn't see that. It's a great deal better to put your name on the top, right hand corner. Anybody can see at a glance whose paper it is, whereas, if the name is on the back you have to turn the paper over, don't you?"

"You do. But as long as it is the teacher's job can't you allow her to do it in her own way? Can't you keep still? Can't you keep your protests to yourself long enough to get your lessons done in the classroom?"

But he rarely could or would. Each suggestion brought out fresh suggestions from David and every order made for an entirely new plan. New ways were to David as the breath of his nostrils. His mother wore a path to the school making peace with the outraged instructors. David wore a shiny place on the floor of the office. That spot marks the place where he got most of his school training. He was graduated one day and peace reigned in his stead.

Yesterday he came into the office again. I saw he had a new way of doing something and bent on telling me all about it so I pushed away the papers and pencils and cleared the track. "I've made a new machine that does the work of the old one and does it a million times better and I've just sold it for a pile."

Non-conformists are very trying but very valuable people, especially when they are children.

IMPROVEMENT OF HILL DRIVE

In accordance with provisions of Resolution of Intention No. 2170 for the improvement of portions of Hill drive and Sycamore Canyon road, hearing objections was set aside for this date. TOURING THE SHOPS with BONNIE JEANNE

VANITIES

Bonnie Jeanne thinks one of the new style vanity cases or a box of dainty handkerchiefs shown at the Betty Ellen Shop, 215 South Brand, would prove an acceptable gift for any occasion, and especially for Christmas. Betty Ellen's pottery wares, including the famous Vanbriggle and others, Furbeck's painted china, one of the Bentley cordalettes with earrings to match—no two sets alike—and a wealth of suggestions in ribbon novelties have been chosen by the most fastidious—and the Betty Ellen is such a pleasant place in which to shop.

KEEP WARM

Wherever the Radiant-fire heaters are used in the home there is the ruddy glow of—just what the name implies—radiance and warmth—both of which are pleasing and comforting now that the cool weather is here. Bonnie Jeanne thinks the Humphrey Radiant-fire heater, such as the Good Housekeeping Shop, 140 South Brand, has to offer are really works of art—designed in many styles, in antique brass, copper and silver or in the highly polished metals. Every home needs some kind of heat in the spring and fall when it would be wasteful to use the furnace—and reserve heat in winter, when the furnace is slow or stubborn is nothing less than a Godsend.

Don't crumple up your dish towels. Rinse and hang them in the sun.

The Paris Shoppe

STYLE WITHOUT EXTRAVAGANCE

Paris wins. It has ever been so, and when you have inspected the inimitable style and taste displayed in the season's latest Parisian creations now ready at the Paris Shoppe, 223 North Brand boulevard, you will realize the charm and daintiness of these garments. Whether it be wraps, coats, gowns, dresses, skirts, sweaters or the lovely crepe and glove silk under apparel the same exquisite atmosphere of romantic and alluring Paris prevails. I believe every Glendale woman should learn to know the Paris Shoppe. Clothes may not make the woman, but each woman knows what place they occupy in her own estimation.

ACCLIMATED PAINT

Happy is he who, in painting his house, chose a paint that is designed especially to withstand the wear of the Southwest climate. Blue Ribbon paints, which are sold at Harry Moore Co., Inc., 304 East Broadway, carry a four-year guarantee against the ravages of this climate. You may select from 36 different shades—think of it!

Blue Ribbon Quality

OLD SIDELIGHTS COPIED

Sidelights that resemble old-fashioned gilt baskets filled with white flowers are among the many charming ideas for diffusing the light.

YOUR FRIENDS KNOW THIS

There are fads, fancies and foibles in stationery, but good taste survives all. Bonnie Jeanne never tires of the ever-changing tones and color combinations offered in Whiting & Cook's and Eaton, Crane and Pike's sets, with their interesting tissue-lined envelopes. You are certain to find your choice, whatever it may be, at the Ahlmann Drug Co., 200 South Brand, for the Christmas shipment has arrived.

WHEN YOU THINK OF IT

Electricity is a wonderful thing, meditates the housewife as she pours golden coffee that has been percolated to a degree of perfection in a shiny electric percolator, and serves hot cakes, bacon and eggs that have been prepared on the electrical griddle. When Bonnie Jeanne saw the useful and practical aluminum electric percolators, $8.50 value, that are being offered for $5 at the Wilson-Bell Hardware Company, 225 North Brand, she was glad, because such a price places this convenience within the reach of every household. The new Universal electrical griddle, such an improvement over the old model, is now ready for inspection also.

THE NOBLER EXPRESSION

A home isn't a home without music!

In music, one expresses the thoughts one cannot put into words, and when one really loves one's home, these thoughts are many.

Bonnie Jeanne likes to think of the Home Perfect, in the evening, "when the lights are low"—and the happy wife, at the piano, draws forth harmonies of joy and the poignancy of happiness, certainly finding relief from the day's cares. And into Bonnie Jeanne's picture of the Home Perfect, she would place a Hobart M Cable piano, because the Hobart M Cable embodies all of the elements for furnishing perfect harmony in the home.

It is the product of skilled workmanship, applied to high grade materials, upon principles established through 20 years of experience. The Hobart M Cable is the music lover's choice. Bonnie Jeanne found that the Piano Exchange, 112 W. Broadway has received a large shipment of these pianos, which will be sold on very reasonable terms. You will be given a liberal allowance on your old piano.

LEOPARD SKIN TRIMS FROCKS

Most striking are the frocks of black trimmed with leopard skin. With these are worn leopard coats or black ones with wide bandings of the same fur.

THE PRICE SHE PAYS

Of course we all know that a perfectly becoming hat is priceless, yet a price must be paid, and so often, it is, alas, too high for one's slim means. Bonnie Jeanne thinks that Suzanne, that genius among women, understands the value of a hat to a woman, for she is so wondrously considerate about the pricing of her distinctive made-to-order models. Bonnie Jeanne wants you to know that her shop is located at 114-A South Brand, upstairs.

HAVE THEM DRY CLEANED

Bonnie Jeanne has found it a good plan to check over her wardrobe just before a busy social season, such as the holidays, and invariably she finds that there are a number of garments that must be dry cleaned. We know you will be pleased with the results if the Glendale Dye Works, 1015 South Brand, does your owrk. They have been here since 1905. Phone Glendale 207.

SHADES FOR SIDELIGHTS

Sidelights and candles are pleasantly shaded by single blue flowers that are semi-transparent and somewhat resemble dahlias.

WHERE FRIENDSHIP LIES

What one finds in pictures is often that which will revive memories of a valued friendship. Perhaps that is one of the reasons for the preference shown pictures, as Christmas gifts. Bonnie Jeanne was pleased with the pictures she saw at Tregea's (Tree-gay's) gift shop, 102 East Harvard. There, pictures occupy a place of honor, where one will find also a selection supreme in novelties, greeting cards, hand-painted china and unexpected delights. For any kind of table favors and place cards, Bonnie Jeanne finds Tregea's very satisfactory.

FERBER'S MOVE

Tuesday is moving day for Ferber's. That means that there is just one more week left of those bargains. Bonnie Jeanne doesn't need to say much about these, because a visit to the store would make it seem that every woman in town knows that Ferber's is moving to a splendid new store at Harvard and Colorado, Friday-week, and that prices have been greatly lowered because Ferber's wants to dispose of all of the present stock before moving. Monday is the last day at 108 South Brand.

MY NEIGHBOR SAYS

A half teaspoon of saltpetre mixed with a half cup of water and poured over a scuttleful of coals will not only induce a brighter fire, but make the coal last longer.

WARMING UP

What an important part heat has played in human progress!

Until man discovered fire, he was a half-animal, a roaver, who accomplished nothing. Warmth has been the very foundation stone of home and family.

Only in recent years have the discoveries of science reached a point nearing perfection—the heating of a home is no longer a drudgery—for with the usual characteristics of science, it has been found that the heating of the home is not complex—is not punctured with unpleasantness and inconvenience, but is the simplest problem in the world—IF—you just apply the scientific principles of the day in your selection of heating methods.

In heating, one can establish the principles of good health, or one can utterly destroy the chances for a healthful existence. Be sure you have the right kind, free from fumes, odor, dust, dirt and soot. To Bonnie Jeanne, the Ward furnace, which is installed so that only the heated air acts against the cold, is the ultimate in heat that is healthful. You can see one in operation at the Jewel City Plumbing Co. 526 East Broadway.

LITTLE THINGS

Bonnie Jeanne found the Little Shop primed with unexpected "little" things for Christmas gifts. Those lovely hand-made bits of fancy work, lingerie and children's clothing are too clever for words. Do you know where the Little Shop is located? You do if you spend much time waiting for the bus, for it's a delightful place to shop while you are waiting, as it is located conveniently at Park and Brand.

Before washing lace collars baste them closely on a piece of white cloth. They will not be stretched or torn. If no starch is put in them they will look like new.

NERVOUS ENERGY

"It's the greatest thing in the world, if you don't abuse it—your greatest friend or your greatest enemy—as you choose." That is what Dr. M. H. Hawman said to Bonnie Jeanne in telling her the merits of chiropractic and naturopathic treatments for diseased nerves. You will find Dr. Hawman at 221-A West Broadway.

ONLY THREE WEEKS UNTIL CHRISTMAS!

So much to be done and so little time in which to do it—the age-old cry of a people who live and move and have their being in a world where time flies.

The thing to do is to make every minute count.

In shopping don't hunt as if for a needle in a hay stack—scan the newspapers and particularly Bonnie Jeanne's columns. It's all put into print for you—because you are busy and time is fleeing and Christmas draws nearer each day.

Every Tuesday and Friday Bonnie Jeanne will tell you of different things—easy to find, if you know where to look, and most desirable to possess.

MY NEIGHBOR SAYS

To remove inkstains from furniture touch the stains lightly with a feather dipped in spirits of nitre, hold a wet rag in the other hand, and as soon as the inkstains disappear wipe over the spot or the spirits will injure the polish. Lemon juice can be substituted for the spirits of nitre, but must be well rubbed in if the stain is of long standing.

A short apron, the lower part of which is double and divided into four pockets, is a great convenience when sewing. Slip all the materials that you need into the pockets. There is no danger of their getting lost or rolling off one's lap as there is if they are loose.

NEW SUBDIVISION TO HAVE GIANT LIGHTS

"Throwing light on the subject" has been carried to an extreme seldom if ever heretofore witnessed in the exploitatoin of a subdivision by the W. H. Rees company. The tract is Neuva Section, Allwyn Park, at Ventura boulevard and Sherman way.

Four enormous lights, each of 1000 watt power, emblazon the Ventura frontage. Thirty-six hundred bulbs of 40 watt power brighten the entire tract. The effect is pleasingly impressive. The illumination may be observed from miles away.

In the words of Salesmanager P. Kennard White: "We are making it easy to visualize what this corner will resemble when homes and business houses stand on what we believe will shortly become the liveliest part of all Ventura. Look at it; it's the nautral place for a dense center, and where would a person find a more homelike homesite.

The predominant color is green, and tasty signs herald the names of purchasers along the Ventura side. They say: "John R. Buck of the Holly Planing Mill bought here; D. M. Porter—knows law and lots—he bought a lot"; J. N. Hastins of the Hellman bank owns this one; Meyer Frank of the Union Mortgage company selected this lot; Ben Asher, the merchant, picked this one; Lou Groman, your tailor, has a lot here; P. P. Diehl bought here; Maude Gordon, leader of ladies' fashions, has two lots; Claire Adams, movie star, bought one of these; Sam Selig, who feeds you, took a site here."

Salesmanager White has engaged six women attendants who will courteously direct visitors. These may be known by their uniforms of black knickers, green caps, green sweaters and white hose.

It is a W. H. Rees project, opening Wednesday night, December 5.

LONG VIEW, Wash., Dec. 4.—Paulina Clark, aged two, and her 2-months-old baby brother, children of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Clark, were burned to death here this morning in the tent house occupied by their parents in a fire started from an overheated stove while the mother was absent a few minutes.

EDITORIALS BY THE PEOPLE

Editor of Glendale Press:

My attention have been directed to a "boxed" article in a local paper of yesterday relative to the wonderful possibilities for employment for the benefit of ONE particular race in the construction of the proposed new sewer, may I venture now to assure your many readers, as well as the many descendants of the Emerald Isle here that there was possibly no reflection intended on the ability or usefulness of that particular race—a race that even in Glendale has many distinguished representatives.

Who could imagine that the business of banking and its standards were lowered by acknowledging within its ranks such men as Daniel Campbell and L. C. Brand, or that the musical profession and the arts suffered from such exponents as Mrs. Nanno Woods and Harry Girard, or again, that the standard of industrial or business occupations was lowered or degraded by honoring within their ranks such clear-headed, successful business operators as W. C. Lauderdale, Peter L. Ferry and Jesse C. Smith; not to speak of that other very useful profession, that of engineering, so successfully represented here in Glendale by Edward M. Lynch.

Or is it possible that our good city fathers have failed in recognizing the abilities of that particular profession in this branch of the undertaking here in Glendale, are thus endeavoring to make good by offering them in this "delicate" manner the job of "digging the ditch?"

Right here we might invoke the scriptural warning: "Whoso diggeth a ditch shall fall therein." And we might also add that it is not a very pleasant ditch to fall into.

Unless all signs fail Glendale High School Football Team will walk away with the championship of Southern California when they tackle Long Beach next Saturday.

The Glendale Boys have shown their ability to "go over the top" and close observers believe victory will crown the Glendale team Saturday.

And who knows but that this same team will not win over the Northern winner if given the opportunity to compete for the state championship.

Saturday's final game for Southern California will be played in the Coliseum, Exposition park, Los Angeles, and promises to attract statewide attention. Out of seven games Glendale has been scored on ten points only, winning every game without any serious interference. San Bernardino was the only team to give Glendale anything like a good tryout, the other teams being "easy meat" for Glendale high gridders.

Glendale boosters should turn out en masse and root for the home team. Tickets will be 75 cents for everyone at the gate. High school students may secure tickets at 25 cents at the high school.

DRAWN BY Wm. Jeckel

SPORT -O- GRAMS

FRANCIS W. READ

Writing in the December number of the Athletic World under the caption "Football Evolving Into a Game for the Masses Instead of a Chosen Few," Chester A. Barnaby comments upon the growing use by coaches of a large number of substitutes and the increased number of men participating in the games. In his article Mr. Barnaby especially treats the situation in the middle west, among the "Big Ten." He shows how in that section of the country there has developed a growing tendency for the use of numerous substitutes and the use of a large number of men in the games. He points out that Illinois, Chicago, Michigan, Iowa, Wisconsin and all of the colleges in the middle west have adopted the system upon which he comments.

Not only is this true in the middle west, but any observer of football on the Pacific coast will immediately see that the system is firmly established among the colleges here. It has become so firmly entrenched that it is almost impossible to tell who are the regulars and who are the substitutes. Take the University of California, for instance. Who could be said to be the backfield men this season? Don Nichols at one halfback position and Hoggy Evans at quarter were the only men who started the majority of the time. The other positions were divided among various men. Andy Smith had three complete backfields that any coach would be glad to have as a first string backfield, and moreover the parts of the three machines were absolutely interchangeable. Dixon, Dunn, Blewett and Witter alternated in their positions. Perhaps Dixon would start a game. When a drop kick was needed Smith would send Blewett into the fray. It was the same to a certain extent on the line. A big part of the strength of California under the Smith regime has always been in the substitutes.

The same situation existed this year in the other colleges on the Pacific coast. U. S. C. and Stanford relied to a large extent on substitutes. Both Henderson and Kerr realized the benefit derived from the system. The Trojans' string of reserves was not as strong as that of California or Stanford, but they used them consistently.

The life of a team as a powerful football unit is greatly increased by the use of reserves. In cases where there are eleven men and eleven men only who can function as a football tam, then in case of injuries the efficiency of the team is lost. The men will not play so hard, for they will be saving themselves. If there are reserves to take their places they will fight until they are all in where otherwise they would have to save themselves for the rest of that game and the games to follow. Then, too, the new system makes specialization possible. Bill Blewett is a drop-kicker, a specialist at the art of drop kicking. Other men have other specialties at which they are more adept than others. To allow this specialization is to materially increase the interest in the game.

TROJANS WILL HOLD CINDERPATH TRYOUTS

Tryouts for places on the squad the University of Southern California plans to enter in the mid-winter relay carnival which will be held Saturday at Occidental, will be held this afternoon on Bovard field, according to Coach Dean B. Cromwell. The Trojans plan to enter a large squad in the meet Saturday and competition for places on the team is keen.

Otto Anderson and Yale Martz, star U. S. C. trackstars, will not take part in the meet at Oxy. Anderson is going hunting, while Martz does not feel he is in good enough condition to take part.

FIGHTING SAILORS BOX TONIGHT IN A. C. BOUTS

TONIGHT'S BOXING CARD

Sailor Verhouse vs. Roy Edwards.
Walter Mathews vs. Jack Thompson.
Sailor Troop vs. Packey Flynn.
Sailor Ratena vs. Jack Carr.
Bert Gonzales vs. Jimmie Racer.

Several sailors from the battle fleet stationed at Los Angeles harbor are carded to box in the Glendale Athletic club bouts this evening and quite a crowd of their shipmates will travel up to Glendale to see them perform. No less than four salts will don the gloves tonight.

In the main event Sailor Verhouse of the U. S. S. Mississippi meets Roy Edwards of Lankershim. Verhouse has quite a reputation among the tars and is cracked up to be some scrapper. Edwards has made a name for himself in these parts and has quite a following. This should be a real good bout.

Walter Mathews of the Glendale Athletic club and Jack Thompson, a San Pedro sailor, will meet in the semi-windup. Mathews is quite a favorite in local circles and will give Thompson a hard fight. Thompson is a good scrapper, having displayed his wares here some time ago.

Sailor Troop of the Mississippi and Packey Flynn are slated to batle. Troop is said to be the real thing, while those who have seen Flynn in any of his bouts here know that he will give the sailor a real scrap.

Jack Carr, of the Glendale Athletic club, will take on Sailor Ratena of the battle fleet. Ratena is one of the best flyweights in the fleet, while Carr has the real stuff. Last week he floored his man in the local ring in just 15 seconds.

Bert Gonzales of Los Angeles and Jimmy Racer of the Glendale Athletic club will stage a whirlwind bout. Both faces are familiar to local fans, and a real scrap is assured. The bouts are staged at Hahn's auditorium, 109 North Brand, and commence at 8 p. m.

COLISEUM SCENE OF BATTLE BETWEEN GLENDALE AND LONG BEACH FOR SOUTHLAND TITLE

Huge Los Angeles Arena Secured for Championship Game Saturday; Dynamiters Work Out on High School Lawn

When Coach Hayhurst's Glendale high school footballers trot out on the gridiron at the Los Angeles Coliseum Saturday in the game with Long Beach for the Southern California championship it will be the first appearance of the Dynamiters on a turf field. In order to accustom his Black and Red warriors to the "feel" of a grass gridiron Hayhurst put them through a light workout yesterday afternoon on the front lawn of the high school. The boys seemed to work on the greensward just as well as on the sawdust and Hayhurst seemed pleased with the ease with which they went through the workout on the turf.

Ronald West, captain of the Dynamiters, who has been laid up with a bad side for the last few weeks, seems to be getting along in great shape and will probably be able to start in the title battle. He got in during the last half of the Santa Monica game last Saturday, and showed up to good advantage. Les Lavelle, who was injured in practice just before the Santa Monica game and forced to remain on the sidelines will probably be out of the lineup Saturday. Either Denny or Bradner, who alternated in his position in the Santa Monica game, will fill the end berth. Aside from the stiffness that comes after a big game, the rest of the team is in good condition. Ryan received slight injuries Saturday, but he will be back in the lineup against Long Beach. Dotson and Morrison received minor injuries to their legs, but both will be in condition for the championship game.

Hayhurst is following the same tactics that he did in practicing for the Santa Monica game. He believes that the team has arrived at its proper stride and is putting it through light workouts daily. From the appearance of the Santa Monica eleven Saturday it had gone stale from over practice. Coach Shutt worked them hard during the entire week before the game. Hayhurst has no desire to see his team go stale. He will, of course, have to put them through all their stuff during the week in order to accustom them to all phases of the game on a turf field, but he will not work them harder than necessary. It is possible that the Dynamiters may practice on the grass at the Caltech gridiron this week, while they will probably have the use of the Coliseum for practice at least one afternoon during the latter part of the week.

The Long Beach team is very good, and the Dynamiters fear them, but not to the extent of being overawed. They realize that they are up against a tough eleven, the toughest they have faced to date, and that they will have the fight of their lives if they are going to win. On the other hand, they are not underestimating their own ability and are going into the game with the determination to win. It is sure that Glendale will open up all the stuff they have in order to win. Hayhurst has no scouts from possible opponents to fear as he had last week and has no reason to keep his stuff under cover. The Elliot brothers are going good and the entire team is full of fight.

If Glendale is victorious in this game, winning the Southern California championship the team will probably enter the race for the state title, playing the winners of the northern and central sections. The central title will be decided Saturday between Fresno and Bakersfield, while Berkeley high looks like the winner in the north.

The game will start at 2 p. m., following the contest between the class C 110-pound teams of the two schools for the Southern California title for their class. The preliminary game is called at 12:45. Tickets will be 75 cents, and will be on sale at the gates. Student tickets will sold at the high school during the week for 25 cents.

GOOD CARD IS ON DECK THURSDAY AT BURBANK

Two contenders for the welterweight championship of the San Fernando valley will don gloves next Thursday evening at the Burbank armory, according to Matchmaker Al Barton of the Burbank Athletic club, to decide who will wear the laurels. Young Lloyd of Universal City and Arizona Wildcat will toss gloves in the main event, which bout undoubtedly will provide thrills for the fans as both boys are well known as fast and clever boxers and should end the long dispute as to the welterweight crown of the valley.

Gil Gallant, who last week fought a draw with Battling Ward, takes on Cyclone Kelly in the semi-windup. Gallant in his fight with Ward displayed unusual fistic talents, which met with instant approval from his audience and his appearance again will be welcomed.

Dick McCarren and Kid Manilo are rematched. Both boys fought a hard draw at their last meeting and this go promises to be good.

As a curtain raiser Pee Wee Jensen takes on that "knockout hound," Jack Carr of the Glendale A. C. These boys are regular darbs and always please.

This week's card is probably the best yet offered by Al Barton and is consistent with his policy to provide bouts par excellence for followers of the manly sport in Burbank.

CLASS C ELEVEN PLAYS FOR THE HONORS SATURDAY

It seems that Coach Hayhurst's heavyweight Dynamiters are not in a class by themselves in seeking the championship of Southern California. Another football aggregation from Glendale high school, piloted by Coach Wolf, is out after the same honors for its class. The 110-pound graidders, officially known as the class C team, but known variously as the paperweights, fleaweights or other titles, will play next Saturday for Southern California championship of the ultra-lightweight class. It seems to be a coincidence that Long Beach, the opponent of the Dynamiters in the big games, should also be the opponent of the tiny Dynamiters in their championship fight. Such is the case however. So, in order to provide an ample supply of football for the fans who throng the Coliseum Saturday, the officials have arranged for the fleaweights of the two schools to play their game as a preliminary to the big contest. The class C scrap will start at 12:45 p. m., while the big fireworks open at 2:00.

It seems that Wolf has a real team, even if it is composed of fleaweights. The class C team has not droped a game and is playing a real brand of football. The class C team is something new this year but certainly has met with success. It is part of a program to allow those who are not heavy enough to make the first team to compete in inter-scholastic athletics. This program was launched with the inauguration several years ago of the lightweight or 130-pound class B team, and further enlarged with the addition of class C outfit. The class B t of Glendale high last year won Central league and lost the So ern California championship Huntington Park in the final g This year they lost the Cen league banner when the tie played off. The class B tean under the direction of Coach terfield while the class C o is under the care of Coach W Coach Hayhurst is in comman the entire athletic program as as the heavyweight team.

Curing your Golf Troubles

By Jim Barnes

Dear Sir:

Will you kindly explain w is meant by playing an appro shot up to the pin from left right, and how it is done? W is the advantage in it? L. K. K

An approach shot from left right is merely a shot in wh quite a bit of cut has been put the ball. That is the club fac brought across the ball from outside in, and at the same t the ball is hit a descending bl the club head striking the b side of ball just before it reac the turf.

The effect of this is to give ball a spinning motion, wh causes it to drift to the ri when it strikes the ground. cause of this drift the player lects a line of play a little to left of the pin instead of play directly for the pin. Preci the same thing takes place as b pens in a ball that is sliced, cept that the spin on the bal not strong enough to alter the rection of its flight in the taking effect only when the strikes the ground.

The shot has the advantage permitting the player to ge little more spin on the ball, still get it up in the air, tha ordinarily possible, where he pends on hitting down on back side of the ball with drawing the clubface across This is a stroke that requires q a degree of skill and is rather d gerous until a player learns control it fully.

AUTO REPAIRING

"SO EASY"
Clutch Attachment for Chevrolet Cars

There is nothing so annoying or injurious as the constant grabbing of a clutch which has a tendency to loosen the mechanical parts from the radiator to the rear end and is extremely unpleasant to the ones riding in the car. After this grabbing has taken place for a short time there is a likilhood of its tearing the whole rear end out, which is an unnecessary expense if you will only realize the clutch of any car needs occasional attention. You will have a smooth, easy but positive action thereby saving yourself expensive repair bills and make riding a pleasure as the SO EASY makes a good clutch better.

DYNAMITERS FEAST AND SEE FILM PLAY

spuds, delicious baked white potatoes, plenty of butter, French rolls, along with wonderful soup, a salad, confections, and so on.

Coach Hayhurst played a "crude" trick on the youngsters. It was absolutely heartless. When it came time for the dessert the boys were all sitting on the edges of their chairs, now and then casting an expectant glance toward the kitchen. Would the dessert never come? Right there the coach got in his "dirty work." Going from table to table he announced that there would be no dessert—no sweets, you know, for fellows who are in training. Their faces fell—almost to the floor—but like the game bunch of sports they are they kidded themselves into believing that maybe it was all right, after all.

After giving a yell for "Dennis," the outfit journeyed to the Glendale theater, where they were guests of big-hearted "Bill" Howe for two hours.

After the show the surprise occurred. The warriors were taken back to the "Chateau de Qualite." Once more they took their places around the tables and before they knew it dainty little footballs—made of chocolate ice cream with pink candy laces and lace holes, were placed before them.

This took the boys off their feet. They let out a yell and "fell to." Fifteen minutes later, after showering Manager Dennis with all kinds of beautiful verbal bouquets they were on their way homeward. At 10 o'clock every one of those "kids" was in bed and storing up strength for the game against Long Beach next Saturday.

Just a word about the boys. The Daily Press reporter looked from boy to boy as they were seated around the tables, and he marveled at the sight before him. Such a wonderful buch of fellows! Every "man" of that team is clean cut, clear eyed, and absolutely true to himself, his school, his coach, his "Profs" and his city. Every fellow is a man in heart, regardless of his years. There are no cigarettes for that bunch of fellows and no "forbidden sweets" while in training. They are sincere and earnest.

They have shown that when it comes to training they can train; when it comes to sacrifice, they can deprive themselves; when it comes to taking instructions they can listen and learn, and when it comes to fighting on the football field—well, anyone who has seen them in action knows what they can do.

These boys, during their league and other games, have earned the reputation of being one of the cleanest playing aggregations in Southern California. Coach Hayhurst has insisted on instilling clean playing ideals into them and they would rather lose a game honorably than win it by anything but fair methods. But when it comes to clean football playing you can leave it to them.

Those taking part in last night's jamboree were as follows: Clayton Phillips, Cecil Zaun, Harry Murphy, Donald Deitrich, Leslie Lavelle, Richard Ryan, Donald West, Cyril Walton, Howard Elliott, Eric Bradner, Masuri Horii, Arden Gingery, Jack Offut, Angelo Brucker, Carl Denny, Lewis Dotson, Derrill Elliott, Marion Morrison, Erwin Carver, High Weaver, Charles Lundie, John Parker, all members of the football team.

There were also Principal G. U. Moyse, Vice-Principal A. L. Ferguson, Coach N. C. Hayhurst, Assistant Coach H. L. Butterfield and Trainer Robert Kolts.

Oliver Cromwell's 17th Century Substitute for Daily Dozen Demonstrated by Premier Baldwin

The British premier is shown above seated in the home horse-exerciser used by Cromwell to keep himself fit while he was Lord Protector of England from 1653 to 1658. The interested spectator is Gen. Jan Smuts, Premier of South Africa, who was in England attending the Imperial Conference of Premiers. The ancient exerciser is treasured in the long gallery at Chequers, Premier Baldwin's residence.

Just Chatter

Have you ever met one of those pests who are forever harping about how lucky a certain fellow is, who after years of study, strife and hardship finally attains success. I met one the other day who buttonholed me for 20 minutes telling me how lucky one of our mutual friends was.

"Oh, yes," he began, all enthused, "I saw Jimmy Buckley yesterday and believe me, he's sitting pretty. He's got the old world by the nose. He's married and settled down. Got a nice family, a pretty little home nearly all paid for and a runabount. He's away up in his profession and doing fine. He sure was lucky, but that's the way with some folks. Everything they touch turns into gold. Why I knew him when he didn't have a dime."

So did I. Poor Jim. He left a $75 a week position to join the army in the world war, and returning home shellshocked, gassed and friendless, he had to start all over again. Denied compensation through a maze of red tape he wandered about, picking up odd jobs as best he could for he was physically unable to perform his pre-war tasks. He even washed dishes, studying between times, often burning the midnight oil till 2 and 3 in the morning. I know, for being his roommate, he often kept me awake. Through sheer grit and bulldog determination he slowly rose in health and his chosen profession without aid or counsel. The last time I saw him he was well up the ladder of success. And now along comes this chap and remarks how lucky old Jim was. L-u-c-k—luck! A funny word, isn't it?

Modern Version of New Testament

By EDGAR J. GOODSPEED

THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO MARK

"This people honor me with their lips,
"Why do the men of this day ask for a sign?" I tell you, no sign will be given them."

And he left them and got into the boat again and crossed to the other side.

Now they had forgotten to bring any bread, and they had only one loaf with them in the boat. And he warned them, saying,

"Look out! Be on your guard against the yeast of the Pharisees and the yeast of Herod!"

They were discussing with one another their being without bread. And he noticed it and said to them,

"Why do you discuss your being without bread? Do you not yet see nor understand? Are your minds so dull? When you have eyes can you not see, and when you have ears can you not hear? Do you not remember how many baskets of pieces you picked up when I broke the five loaves in pieces for those five thousand men?"

They said to him,

"Twelve."

"When I broke the seven loaves in pieces for the four thousand, how many baskets of pieces did you pick up?"

They said to him,

"Seven."

He said to them,

"Do you not understand yet?"

And they came to Bethsaida. And people brought a blind man to him and begged him to touch him. He took him by the hand and led him outside of the village, and spitting in his eyes he laid his hands on him and asked him,

"Do you see anything?"

He looked up and said,

"I can see the people, for they look to me like trees, only they are moving about."

Then he laid his hands on his eyes again, and he looked steadily and was cured, and saw everything plainly. And he sent him home and said to him,

"Do not even go int othe village."

Then Jesus and his disciples went away to the villages around Caesarea Philippi. On the way he questioned his disciples and said to them,

"Who do people say that I am?"

They said to him,

"John the Baptist; others say Elijah, and others that you are one of the prophets."

And he asked them,

"But who do you say that I am?"

Peter answered and said to him,

"You are the Christ."

And he warned them not to say this about him to anyone.

Then he explained to them for the first time that the Son of Man must go through much suffering, and be refused by the elders and the high priests and the scribes, and be killed, and rise again three days after. He told them this plainly. And Peter took him aside, and began to reprove him for it. But turning and seeing his disciples he reproved Peter, and said,

"Get out of my sight, you Satan! for you do not side with God, but with men."

And he called the people and his disciples to him and said to them,

"If anyone wants to go with me, he must disregard himself, and take his cross and follow me. For whoever wants to preserve his own life will lose it, and whoever loses his life for me and for the good news will preserve it. For what good does it do a man to gain the whole world and yet part with his life? For what can a man give to buy back his life? For if anyone is ashamed of me and my teaching in this unfaithful and sinful age, then the Son of Man will be ashamed of him, when he comes back in his Father's glory, with the holy angels." And he said to them, "I tell you, some of you who stand here will certainly live to see the reign of God come in its might."

Six days after this Jesus took Peter, James, and John with him and led them up on a high mountain, off by themselves. And his appearance underwent a change in their presence, and his clothes shone whiter than any earthly bleaching could make them. And Elijah appeared to them, accompanied by Moses, and they talked with Jesus. Then Peter spoke, and said to Jesus,

"Master, how good it is that we are here! Let us put up three huts, one for you and one for Moses and one for Elijah." For he did not know what to say, they were so frightened. And a cloud came and overshadowed them, and from the cloud came a voice,

"This is my Son, my Beloved. Listen to him."

And suddenly, on looking around, they saw that there was now no one with them but Jesus alone. As they were going down the mountain, he cautioned them to let no one know what they had seen, until the Son of Man should rise from the dead. And they did not forget what he said, but discussed with one another what he meant by the rising from the dead. And they asked him,

"Why do the scribes say that Elijah has to come first?"

He said to them,

"Elijah does come first, and reforms everything, and does not the Scripture say of the Son of Man that he will suffer much and be refused? Why, I tell you, not only has Elijah come, but people have treated him just as they pleased, as the Scripture says about him."

When they came to the disciples, they saw a great crowd around them, and some scribes arguing with them. And all the people were amazed when they saw him, and they ran up to him and greeted him. And he asked them,

"What are you discussing with them?"

One of the crowd answered,

"Master, I brought my son to you, for he is possessed by a dumb spirit, and wherever it seizes him it convulses him, and he foams at the mouth and grinds his teeth; and he is wasting away. I told your disciples to drive it out, and they could not do it."

He answered them and said,

"O you unbelieving people, how long must I be with you? How long must I put up with you? Bring him here to me!"

And they brought the boy to him As soon as the spirit saw him, it convulsed the boy, and he fell down on the ground and rolled about, foaming at the mouth Jesus asked the boy's father,

"How long has he been like this?"

And he said,

"From his childhood, and many a time it has thrown him into the fire or into the water, to put an end to him. But if there is anything you can do, take pity on us and help us!"

Jesus said to him,

"'If there is anything I can do!' Everything is possible for one who has faith!"

The boy's father immediately cried out,

"I have faith! Help my want of faith!"

Then Jesus, seeing that a crowd was rapidly gathering, reproved the foul spirit and said to it,

"You deaf and dumb spirit, get out of him, I charge you, and never enter him again!"

EAGLE ROCK NOTES

At 1750 Colorado boulevard, a boundary line dispute has been developed in which a fence and shrubbery have been uprooted. A little difference as to the location of the exact line seems to be the center of the trouble, but it is expected to be settled shortly.

The York Valley Occidental Improvement association will meet this coming Monday night at 8 o'clock, in the Presbyterian church, corner of Glassell and York. Everyone is invited to attend, as it is for the benefit of all those in this vicinity especially.

Mrs. Harrie Collins of 1549 Hazelwood avenue is entertaining the mothers of the Parent-Teacher association at an all-day affair at her home. Plans for the betterment of school children will probably be discussed. All mothers in this district are asked to come.

The Methodist church will hold a board meeting tomorrow night to discuss plans for the new church.

The building permits issued since the first of the month up to 2 o'clock Monday afternoon, totaling $111150, are as follows: G. P. Thompson, dwelling, 5431 Ellis, $4800; Carl C. Jenkins, residence, 2354 Palm avenue, $3500; Carl C. Jenkins, garage 2354 Palm avenue, $150; Wilson W. Lahman, garage, 4966 Townsend avenue, $500; E. J. Davis, residence, 1926 Stanley avenue, $2500.

Charles I. Ohrenstein, C. S. B., of Syracuse, New York, will give a free lecture on Christian Science at the Women's club house, Colorado and Kenilworth, at 8 o'clock Friday evening. The lecture is free and all are invited to attend.

If you haven't attended the bazaar of the Methodist church, you can still do so and get a supper at 6:30 tonight for 50 cents; and then purchase your Christmas gifts at a very reasonable price.

The Eagle Rock Parent-Teacher association is beginning a drive to get Christmas gifts for the children of the Utah street school of Los Angeles. Gifts of candy, toys, clothing, money and the necessities of life will be greatly appreciated. All the things must be in by Wednesday, Dec. 12, as school closes the fourteenth. This will give the kiddies here a chance to fix up the toys they no longer care for, and at the same time help those of another school. Many of these Utah street school children would have an unhappy Christmas day if it were not for the thoughtfulness of others. The Eagle Rock Parent-Teacher association will meet tomorrow afternoon and thus get the work started immediately. If you have something you do not need, let them have it. They can find a worthy place for it.

Four Fords had a mix-up at Fiftieth and Figueroa streets last night. Two of them evidently crashed together and then mixed up two others. As a consequence, there was glass, tin, oil, gasoline, parts of wheels and everything else that goes to make a Ford all over the street.

AUXILIARY TO CHILDREN'S HOSPITAL SOCIETY MEETS

Members of the Glendale auxiliary of the Children's hospital society held their regular meeting Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. F. L. Doggett, 326 West Garfield avenue, with Mrs. Ernest Morgan presiding. At the business session report was made of the linen shower held recently at the hospital. Mrs. Morgan of Glendale, who attended, stated that she took over a donation of towels from the Glendale auxiliary and also $10 from Chapter AH, P. E. O., as well as a most generous donation of cut flowers from Mr. and Mrs. Goto of Park and Central avenues.

Plans are being made for a Christmas shower of fresh and canned fruits, nuts, raisins, etc., for the children. Anyone wishing to donate any of these articles is asked to get in touch with Mrs. Morgan before December 15.

Any man who tries to dodge his taxes has no business to hanker for fame.

IS INVESTIGATING POSSIBILITIES OF BUILDING

Prominent Man Here to Present Attractive Financing Plan

Mr. C. C. Ritchie, general manager of the Pacific Home Building Realty company, is in the city today looking over the ground with a view of having his company enter this field and take an active part in building houses for hundreds of people, many of whom could not secure them in any other way. Mr. Ritchie's attention was centered on Glendale from reading the large advertisements sent out by our Chamber of Commerce and printed in many of the leading daily papers of the country. In conversation with a reporter of the Daily Press he stated as follows:

"Our company, with headquarters in Los Angeles, is a California institution, operating under a copyrighted plan and the only one of its kind in the world. Its growth has been phenomenal and as an illustration let me say that we wrote $121,000 worth of business the first month after receiving our permit to operate and the volume has increased rapidly. There are two classes of people we wish to reach: First, those who want homes; second, those looking for safe and profitable investments. I will venture to say that anyone who investigates us searchingly, will immediately deal with us. The first class will secure their homes for anyway one-half of what they would have to pay by any other method, and the latter can look for dividends of probably 50 per cent, and maybe more.

"Of course we all understand that any investment proposition handled by a corporation in this state is, to all intents and purposes, under the control of the corporation commission. In our case, before we were licensed to transact business, not only the proposed operation plan but the inside workings of the entire organization were gone into thoroughly by the actuaries of the state. You see, when a company intimates to the public that it can and will make profits of 50 per cent or better, for its patrons, they are given a far more searching investigation than the ordinary, or usual concern. The corporation commission never endorses, or intends to endorse, anyone or anything. The fact that they license a company to transact business is in itself an endorsement but in our case we consider they went beyond that for the actuary in giving his written opinion, among other statements made the following: 'The plan is practicable and can be demonstrated to be sound. * * * In looking upon the matter as a purely real estate transaction, we may consider that the member who obtains his home and moves in, is required to pay not much more than he would pay for rental of similar property from other people.'

"The plan of our company condensed into a few words is simply this:

"The individual decides the value of the home he desires and pays a membership fee of $30 on the $1000, after that a monthly payment of $5 on the $1000. We buy vacant lots and tracts of land for subdivision and build houses by the hundreds using many beautiful designs from which the member can take his choice. As soon as the home is ready for occupancy an additional fee of $10 per month on the $1000 is payable, a total monthly payment of one-third, possibly one-half, what the property would rent for. The contract is for a definite period without interest and those who are unable to complete their payments previous to occupancy will, at the option of the company, receive their money back, or a certificate, similar to a certificate of deposit, issued that will draw 7 per cent compounded annually.

"As the company transacts business on an extensive scale, its patrons are in the position of copartners, receiving all the benefits of low prices secured by extensive purchases of realty and costs of construction."

In order to immediately bring the operations of the company to the favorable attention of the people of Glendale, Mr. Ritchie has rented the Glendale Press auditorium at 333 North Brand boulevard, for the evening of Thursday, December 6, and extends a cordial invitation to every interested individual to attend. The official lecturers of the company will be present and explain the objects of the company in an entertaining manner. All of the officers of the company, several of its directors and many of its representatives will be present, and every effort made in private as well as in public to give all desired or additional information.

Foley's Friendly Fancies

JAMES W. FOLEY

WHAT WAS DONE ABOUT IT?

The need was great, I heard you say,
And it called for help to mend it;
The wrong was keen in every way,
And someone should go and end it.
Your soul was vexed and you hoped they'd find
The courage needed to rout it,
And you talked of it and you spoke your mind,
But what did you DO about it?

The thing was in every way unfair,
And it fretted and hurt and fussed us,
For there was evil everywhere
And a need for right and justice.
So we talked of it with language plain,
How right was shamed and flouted,
But when we had scolded with might and main,
What did we DO about it?

Evil and wrong on every hand,
And loudly we declared it;
Need for brave men through the land
And so we exposed and aired it.
And through the day and into the night
We cry and print and shout it,
But which of us enters the lists to fight
And what do we DO about it?

I heard you scold and you heard me,
And please the Lord we meant it;
We saw the thing as it ought to be,
And we drew our breath and spent it
In flaming words and we damned the wrong
And the rascals should be outed
And our speech was hot and our speech was long,
But what did we DO about it?

"GOLD DIGGERS" IS FEATURE AGAIN AT THE GATEWAY

The much anticipated showing at the Gateway theatre of "The Gold Diggers," is one of those rare pictures which makes its coming an event to remember for all time. This is not on account of its celebrated stars, its strong story and beautiful unique settings, but also because the entire story is unrolled smoothly, apparently without effort, as though it were a single unit, and not a complicated story of the gay night life of New York's intriguing women.

One of the splendid scenes in the picture is a Spanish dance given by Jerry Lamar. In it she is dressed in a wonderful Spanish costume, and the scene is set in a typical Spanish atmosphere. Its beauty and rythm are really enchanting.

The very able cast includes Hope Hampton, Windham Standing, Louise Fazenda, Gertrude Short, Alex Francis, Jed Prouty, Arita Gillman, Peggy Brown, Margaret Seddon, Johnny Harron, Ann Cornwall, Edna Tichenor, Frances Ross, Marie Prade and Louise Beaudet.

RARE ROMANCE IN GREAT FILM "CAMEO KIRBY"

The screen version of "Cameo Kirby," the stage success by Booth Tarkington and Harry Leon Wilson is running again today at the Glendale theatre, with John Gilbert in the title role.

"Cameo Kirby" is the story of an honorable Mississippi river gambler of the days of '39, in all his color and romance, who uses methods considered unethical to protect a plantation owner from an unscrupulous gambler in a game of cards. Complications follow which cause Kirby to be a fugitive from justice charged with murder. By chance he becomes infatuated with the daughter of the man he tried to protect. She is unaware that he is Cameo Kirby, whom, she believes, was indirectly responsible for the death of her father. She falls in love with him. The situation is strong and is worked out in a setting of rare charm and natural beauty of the southland.

Mr. Gilbert, Gertrude Olmsted and Alan Hale do excellent work in the three central characters.

"DANGEROUS MAID" WITH CONSTANCE TALMADGE, T.D.& L.

Here's great news for patrons of the T. D. & L. theatre. Constance Talmadge is coming again. And she will be seen in "The Dangerous Maid," where she went after the heart of a handsome captain and got it, though she was up against everything from escaping jail to horsewhipping the king's officers and fighting his whole army. If you doubt it come out tomorrow or next day and see this bit of wild-fire femininity do her stunts. Then there's an absolutely unapproachable vaudeville bill of songs, dances and high-class acts of many kinds.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 4.—"If you appreciate the happiness and enjoyment which comes from living in the best country in the world then you are patriotic."

This is the gist of a new definition of patriotism phrased by James F. Collins, state commander of the American Legion in California.

Collins' new patriotic creed for the members of the ex-service men's organization declared that, "If you believe you are living in the best country in the world and if you believe that the prosperity of this country is greater and that it offers greater opportunities than any other country; if you believe you can enjoy greater happiness and that it is the best place to raise your family in, you should appreciate that happiness and enjoyment."

Commander Collins declares "if you do appreciate these things then you are patriotic; if you do not you fail to do your duty as an American.

"If you do appreciate it, it is your duty to put your shoulder to the wheel and arouse in your family patriotism for the greatest government in existence today and when you establish your appreciation by your active effort in the maintenance of your form of government; by your maintenance of your very community life, then you are showing patriotism by practicing patriotism and when you fail to do this you are failing in the most important function as a citizen of the United States. You are failing to show that you appreciate that you are living under the privileges of the Stars and Stripes and in failing to appreciate that, you are striking at the very root of your family life. Once you shatter your respect for the government, if you fail to appreciate the government under which you and your family enjoy the privileges you do as citizens of the United States, you should not be here. The person who accepts the individual happiness and individual prosperity of the United States and fails to appreciate it has no right to live here."

What Will You Be Worth When You Are Sixty-Five?

The questions: "What will I be worth when I am 65?" and "is home owning worth while?" are in the minds of practically every individual, says Donald R. Gillin, service maanger of the Bentley Lumber company, situated at 460 West Los Feliz road.

An individual 25 years old according to American mortality table is expected to live 45 years more. If this individual continues to pay rent during the remaining years of his life at the rate of $50 a month he will contribute to his landlord $24,000 for which he has nothing to show.

Suppose this same man has $1000 in the bank with which to make the first payment on a $6000 home, and he arranges to pay out on the monthly basis at a rate of $50 per month, which amount includes interest at 6 per cent on defered payments, he will have a clear title to a home of his own within a period of approximately 12 years. During this period he has accumulated assets of $5000 above the $1000 which he had in the bank instead of paying an equal amount to his landlord.

If, after he has completed the payments on his home he will continue to save $50 per month on compound interest at 6 per cent he will have an estate at the end of 28 years which amounts to $43,113.81.

When these facts are considered they should prompt the undecided person to start saving for a home. Mr Gillin also mentioned the fact that the Bentley Lumber company is in a position to supply its customers with stock plans for any type of home absolutely without charge.

Don't expect your friends to pull you out of a hole unless you show some eagerness to help.
